

8 Things Kids in Foster Care Want You To Know

Each and every single young person in foster care is a courageous individual with something to say. Listen to them.

"We're not 'just' foster kids."

Perhaps this is the most important thing they need you to know. Foster kids aren't actually "foster kids." They are young people who happen to have experienced foster care.

Swing into Action at our Golf Classic!
Aug. 29th

The tragic events in Orlando Florida have left our nation mourning. Our hearts go out to the families and victims of the mass shooting.

Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and/or questioning (LGBTQ) youth enter the foster care system for many of the same reasons as non-LGBTQ youth such as abuse, neglect, and parental substance abuse.

But many LGBTQ youth have the added layer of trauma that comes with being rejected or mistreated because of their sexual orientation, gender identify or gender expression.

That's what happened to David.

Howard Slayen Rejoins Child Advocates' Board

Child Advocates welcomes back former board member Howard Slayen!

Howard has more than 40 years of experience in tax, mergers and acquisitions, and financial advisory services.

He was a partner of PricewaterhouseCoopers for 23 years, prior to being CFO of a number of start-up enterprises. He is both a CPA (inactive) and an attorney (inactive). Since retiring from active practice, he has spent his time as a professional board member for a variety of nonprofit, and publicly and privately held corporations.

"I am so impressed by the Child Advocates' staff and CASA volunteers. I consider it an honor to rejoin the board after my brief hiatus."

Have you thought about becoming a CASA volunteer? Attend an upcoming Volunteer Open House orientation session:

Date: Wednesday, July 13

Where: Sobrato Center, 1400 Parkmoor Ave, San Jose

Time: 6:15 pm - 8:00 pm
